

The MPAA should not be allowed to downrez public high definition television, or content paid for by subscription to a satellite or cable service.